

Since the Geneva Hotel (now the Pulteney Apartments) was built in 1796 – and promptly proclaimed “the finest hostelry west of Albany” – Geneva has been renowned for its gracious accommodations. Today, guests can settle into an Italian villa or converted castle (both four-diamond properties), a quaint bed and breakfast, a luxurious winery inn nestled in the vineyards, a sportsmen’s lodge, or a modern lakeside hotel with all the amenities.

Whether your Geneva agenda is a romantic getaway, wine country tour, fishing expedition, college visit or corporate conference, Geneva will provide the perfect accommodations at your preferred price level. The only advisory is to reserve early; popular Geneva fills up fast, especially during the summer season.
